After a series of discovery kerfuffles, this Court ordered the pro se Plaintiffs to participate fully in their depositions. The Court told them that the failure to fully cooperate and participate in their depositions would result in the Court dismissing their case with prejudice.

It is clear from a review of the transcripts of their depositions that both Plaintiffs failed to follow the Court's order. On numerous occasions, the Plaintiffs refused or failed to answer simple straightforward questions. The transcript scores of instances, similar to the examples below, of the lack of cooperation and full participation by the Plaintiffs in their depositions. This is just a small example:

Mr. Jacobowitz deponent

Q. What is your highest level of education?

A. Still learning everyday . . .

Q. Did you graduate from high school?

A. Don't recall.

Mrs. Jacobowitz deponent

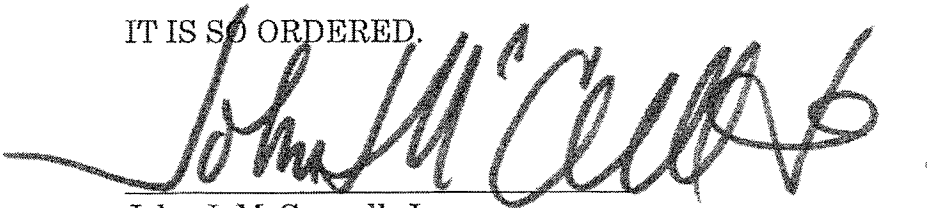

Q. What's your highest level of formal education?

A. Objection. Irrelevant.

The Plaintiffs failed to answer substantively most of the questions posed. Such disregard of the Court's order and of the rules of procedure is inexcusable, and after the Court warned them of the consequences, requires this Court to dismiss their complaint.

Therefore, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 37(b)(2)(A)(v), the Court DISMISSES Plaintiffs' complaint with prejudice against all Defendants.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
